The Academic Enrichment Guide
is made possible through grants from:

The Minnesota Office of Higher Education Summer Academic Enrichment Program!

Stipends to cover
the cost of a summer program up to $1,000.

Find more information at:
ohe.state.mn.us

The Summer Academic Enrichment program will provide stipends on a first-come, first-serve basis, to cover all or a portion of the direct cost for students in grades 3-11 to attend eligible summer academic enrichment programs in summer 2019.

Who is Eligible?

- If you are a MN resident attending an eligible summer enrichment program, and
- You are eligible for free or reduced priced lunches, and
- You are currently in grades 3–11, and
- If you are in grades 7–11 you must either have an overall “C” average or its equivalent for the most recently recorded academic term in the subject area applicable to the summer program you wish to attend, and
- Funds are still available.

The Summer Enrichment stipend will cover the cost of the summer program up to a maximum amount of $1,000. Students will only be able to receive one stipend.

The deadline date is established by the summer program until all funds have been awarded out to students.

More Information including a list of eligible programs and application details visit: ohe.state.mn.us

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

The guide provides an easy reference to search for programs.

REMEMBER:

Research! Check out the listings here as a starting point.

Reach out! Call or e-mail for more information.

Pay attention to deadlines! Many programs recruit early and fill up fast so get your applications in as soon as you can.

Ask about financial aid! We have made a point to list free or affordable programs with scholarship opportunities, but always ask the program directly if there are additional savings available if a program really interests you!

Carleton Liberal Arts Experience

Carleton College

The Carleton Liberal Arts Experience (CLAE) will select 52 high school students who have just completed their sophomore year and bring them to Carleton, all expenses paid, for a one-week summer program. The CLAE program introduces the strengths of a liberal arts education through an array of courses taught by professors in science, art, social sciences, and technology. We will also talk at length about the selective college admissions process and what students can do to get into highly selective colleges and earn scholarships. Students of African-American descent or students who have an interest in African-American culture are encouraged to apply.

H.O.P.E. Academic and Leadership Academy

Winona State University

The H.O.P.E. Academic and Leadership Academy is a ten-day residential program for high school students in grades 9-12. The purpose of the Academy is to provide under-represented and underserved students with an opportunity to experience college life by engaging in college-level courses and workshops to develop and explore their leadership skills.

The Academy also offers leadership training, communication and skill building activities that can help students and their families, move beyond the financial, social, and academic barriers –both factual and presumed, toward the realization of an engaged and successful undergraduate experience. The H.O.P.E. Academic and Leadership Academy will challenge each student to gain a new perspective on their humanity by providing theoretical and practical information necessary for the development of well-informed decision-making and judgement aptitude for present and future challenges. Through the Academy, it is hoped that the students realize how intellect, integrity, courage, respect, passion, and leadership are true building blocks for future academic and personal success.

Saint Paul Public Schools Children’s Defense Fund Freedom Schools®

Saint Paul Public Schools and collaborative public, private and faith-based partners

CDF Freedom Schools® are rooted in the 1964 Mississippi Freedom Summer Project during the Civil Rights Movement. This six-week model builds strong, literate, and empowered K–8 scholars prepared to “Make a Difference” in today’s society, and plays a much needed and proven role in closing the multiple opportunities gaps and curbing summer learning loss. SPPS CDF Freedom Schools support scholars and families around high quality and culturally affirming curriculum and books, parent empowerment workshops and connection with community resources, social/ civic engagement, college and career readiness, and health and wellness.

Cooperative and engaging group activities include field trips and S.T.E.A.M. (Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, and Math) enrichment. Freedom Schools increases academic skills, self-esteem, and pride in cultural heritage.

Youth & Young Adults Program

Southwest Minnesota Private Industry Council

The PIC team works one-on-one and in group or cohort settings to increase the skills of the region’s youth. SW MN PIC offers youth the ability to earn wages, receive academic credit, stackable credentials, apprenticeships, on-the-job training, and gain leadership skills. PIC Youth & Young Adults Programs offers comprehensive training to young adults who traditionally face barriers to successful employment. The program coordinates fundamental career and technical skills training concentrating on high-growth, in-demand industries in southwest Minnesota.

Program dates: See website for complete information: swmnpic.org

Eligibility: Students from the 14-county service area: Big Stone, Chippewa, Cottonwood, Jackson, Lac qui Parle, Lincoln, Lyon, Murray, Nobles, Pipestone, Redwood, Rock, Swift, and Yellow Medicine counties. WIOA Youth Eligibility—The Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) provides out-of-school youth ages 16–24 and in-school youth ages of 14–21 with year-round employment and training services. WIOA emphasize services to out-of-school and disconnected youth, high school dropout recovery and attainment of recognized postsecondary credentials. MYP Youth Eligibility—The Minnesota Youth Program serves low-income and at-risk youth ages 14–24 who lack academic and “applied skills” considered critical for current and future workplace needs.

Cost: On-the-job training, paid internships, or work experience may be offered as a component to meeting career goals. In these cases, wages would be available. In some cases, the PIC has been known to make stipends available during complimentary and value-added sessions hosted by PIC.

Register online: Eriann Faris, efaris@swmnpic.org or 507-476-4053

Sponsor: SW MN Private Industry Council (PIC):The PIC is a non-profit partner of the MN Workforce Center System. It operates through federal, state, and local grants such as Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) and the Minnesota Youth Program (MYP).

Adventures in Cardboard

Adventures in Cardboard

Step into a world of swords and sorcery, catapults and castles, mythical heroes and legendary beasts!

Be initiated into an ancient and esteemed House of The Realm and jump into live-action adventure gaming! Build your own arms and armor! Create your own culture and histories! Defend your lands from monsters and opposing Houses! Construct gigantic castles, labyrinths and fortified cities! Battle on trails, fields and shorelines as you seek out lost relics of power! Tell a hundred stories by your word and deed in the most enchanting, wooded and mystical parks across the metro region!

Adventures in Cardboard seeks to re-inspire creative outdoor play by immersing participants in fantastic worlds that they help to create.

Our camps are places that demand the use of legs and feet as much as hands and head, where artist-instructors seek to unleash a zeal for creative role-playing, and where “wonder” is the preferred path to igniting a passion for design, construction and playful exploration of the natural world.

Our mythical realm is a dangerous place, but our camps are safe places for all people, of all genders. Bring your reality into our open world and expand everyone’s horizons!

Clay Camps

Northern Clay Center

Campers will expand their imaginations while accomplishing LASTING FEATS OF CLAY. Whether working with sculpture, tiles, or wheel-thrown pottery, students will learn to work INDEPENDENTLY AND COLLABORATIVELY in a small class setting with plenty of individual instruction. Camps are offered in a variety of themes (birds or dinosaurs, serving platters or ice cream dishes, giant vases or tiny garden houses) and they incorporate instruction for a variety of clay techniques—leaving PLENTY OF ROOM FOR EXPLORATION and decoration.

Half-day camps meet for three hours each day (from 9 am – 12 pm or 1 – 4 pm) and include a short break for snacks provided by parents and caregivers. Half-day camps do not include lunch. Full-day camps meet for 7 hours each day (from 9 am – 4 pm unless otherwise noted) and include an hour-long supervised break for lunch and non-clay activities. Parents should provide snacks and lunches for full-day campers. Each camp is led by a teaching artist; on average, one additional teaching assistant is present for each camp. New camps begin each Monday, June 10 through August 12.

Journalism Summer Camps

Three Sixty Journalism

ThreeSixty Journalism, an intensive multimedia program for high school students, is part of the College of Arts and Sciences at the University of St. Thomas. ThreeSixty trains and supports the next generation of diverse thinkers, communicators and leaders.

ThreeSixty offers year-round programming. Each student begins with a summer journalism camp, progresses to our school-year programming options, and earns eligibility to participate in our advanced camps during subsequent summers. Programming is led by full-time ThreeSixty staff and supported by media professionals and community partners, plus University of St. Thomas faculty and staff.

Graduates of a ThreeSixty summer journalism camp compete for a full-tuition, four-year award to study communication and journalism at the University of St. Thomas.

With the exception of Radio Broadcast Camp (which takes place at Minnesota Public Radio headquarters), programming takes place on the St. Thomas campus in St. Paul.

Two-Week Online Video and Soundtrack Immersion Project

Minnesota Online High School

This arts experience is fully online! Participants need a tablet or phone with a front-facing camera (a video camera or DSLR camera will also work) and access to a computer with high speed Internet.

This summer, MNOHS music teacher Erin Winchell and MNOHS media arts teacher Michael Wiechmann are teaming up to lead an exciting, intensive online arts experience. Youth will meet online in real time to develop video projects, show their work, and give and receive feedback—and can earn a quarter credit toward graduation. Projects include a 30-second commercial and a 10-minute short film, documentary, or stop action. All skill levels welcome!

Apply by: June 12 or until full

Eligibility: Grades 9-12

Cost: Tuition for two-weeks (includes 0.25 credit):

Free for current MNOHS-only (comprehensive) students who are eligible for credit recovery (please check with your counselor)

$180 for current MNOHS students who are not eligible for credit recovery

$240 for non-MNOHS students

Program dates: Two week program, June 17–28. 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. M-F + 10 hours/week for projects

Youth should plan to be online 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. weekdays, June 17 - 28, and to work ten additional hours per week on their projects. Most of the scheduled time is for projects but some of it will be for meetings.

Required equipment: A tablet or phone with a front-facing camera (a video camera or DSLR camera will also work). Access to a computer with high speed Internet.

Youth Theology Institute

Augsburg University

AYTI is an intense week of friendship, classroom learning, worship, solitude, contemplation, discernment, and action on Augsburg's urban campus. Participants, mentors, instructors, and program staff learn together, pray together, play together, explore the city together, and discern God's work in our world together. Set in a vibrant neighborhood in the heart of the Twin Cities, the campus of Augsburg University is intentionally reflective of a complex, interconnected world. Augsburg is widely known for its core commitments—faith and spiritual inquiry, vocational discernment, civic engagement, and global understanding.

Our theme for 2019 is Stewarding Creation in our Neighborhoods: Science and Theology in Action. You can read more about the theme on our website augsb.org/ayti/

Apply by: April 15, 2019 After this date, you may inquire about openings in the program until May 15.

Program dates: June 23–28, 2019

Eligibility: Youth who complete grades 9–12 during the 2017–2018 school year who want to engage in deeper conversations about Christian faith, community, and vocation; and will be able to participate in the entire week of the AYTI.

Cost: $300, which includes housing, meals, and all programming. We encourage congregations to sponsor their student or split the cost.

Scholarship: The student's church/congregation is encouraged to pay the full or partial cost of the registration fee to help the student. If this is not possible and the student has financial need, the student or guardian should contact the AYTI program staff with a written request.

Transportation: Participants must find their own transportation to Augsburg on the first and last day of the program. Transportation is provided to off-campus activity locations during the program.

Diversity Council Student Peacemakers Camp

Diversity Council

Research shows that peer intervention is more effective than punitive discipline for addressing bullying, and that promoting empathy and helping students associate power with kindness and positive social behavior are essential elements in reducing bullying in schools. Peacemakers Camp was developed with this in mind. It's a summer experience for middle school students who have the desire to change school culture by learning about tough topics—unconscious bias, “ism” impact, cyberbullying—and by building real life skills to interrupt bias and build empathy.

Program dates: July 15–19, 2019; 8 a.m.–1 p.m. in Rochester MN

Eligibility: Students ages 11–15 who can commit to week-long attendance

Research Internship Program—Cardiovascular Clinical Research

Minneapolis Heart Institute Foundation

MHIF offers one of the most outstanding and unique internship opportunities available to undergraduate premed students and those studying in other health care disciplines. We are seeking a diverse pool of interns with demonstrated academic performance, leadership skills, and career aspirations in the field of cardiology and/or research.

Working closely with both a physician mentor and a research staff mentor, interns contribute to clinical research studies and publications that impact patient care. Research interns abstract data from medical records to enter into databases or spreadsheets, conduct literature reviews, and draft text and charts. Research interns participate in 100+ hours of observation opportunities, field trips, lectures by physicians and other activities designed to enhance the internship experience. Of the more than 192 intern alumni, 46% are physicians, 20% medical students, 17% premed students, and 13% in other healthcare fields.

Apply by: January 15, 2019

Program dates: May 29–August 16, 2019

Location: On the campus of the flagship hospital of Allina Health, Abbott Northwestern Hospital, in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Eligibility: Undergraduate students pursuing a career in clinical practice as an MD or DO, but potentially as a PA, NP or other discipline. GPA of 3.60 or above. Preference will be given to those who are one to two years away from their anticipated medical school enrollment. This often means rising juniors or seniors, but may include graduate or post-baccalaureate students.

Scholarship: Interns are paid a stipend of $420/week. Additional need-based stipend funding may be available.
